G.O. 47.—Volunteer Review.

(Specially issued, 10th April 1885.)

His Royal Highness the Field-Marshal Commanding in Chief has had much pleasure in bringing to the notice of the Secretary of State for War the admirable manner in which the operations connected with the annual Easter Review of Volunteers have this year been carried out at Brighton.

In view of the high state of efficiency to which each arm of this force has been brought, as evinced by the improvement observable at each of these displays, His Royal Highness considers that any particular eulogy would be superfluous.

The proceedings throughout were well arranged and conducted. The soldierlike appearance of the marching columns under Colonel H. Davies, Assistant Adjutant and Quarter-Master-General, Southern District, during the march past on Saturday was worthy of all praise; and the general appearance, steadiness, and conduct of the entire force under the command of Lieutenant-General Sir G. Willis, K.C.B., reflect the highest credit upon officers, non-commissioned officers and men, showing as they do the attention they have continued to devote to their military duties during the past year.

His Royal Highness's thanks are due to Lieutenant-General Sir G. Willis for the excellent arrangement of the numerous plans and details of the manœuvres, and also to the Generals of the attacking and defending force, the Generals of the various Divisions, and their several staff officers, for the services they rendered towards making this review a complete success.

G.O. 48.—Army Organization.

The following changes in the designations of companies of Royal Engineers are promulgated for general information, and will take effect from 1st April 1885.

The companies as under will be lettered, instead of being numbered as heretofore:—
